

Climbing Mount Kenya

Mount Kenya is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is the highest mountain in Kenya and the second highest in Africa, after Kilimanjaro. The highest peaks of the mountain are Batian at 5,199 metres (17,057 ft), Nelion at 5,188 metres (17,021 ft) and Point Lenana at 4,985 metres (16,355 ft). Mt. Kenya is located in central Kenya, just south of the equator and 150 kilometres from Nairobi. Climbing Mount Kenya safaris is a stunning adventurous expedition to a unique land of contrasts and natural wonders. Mount Kenya climbing offers a choice of exciting treks through varied ecosystems and awe-inspiring scenery.

We offer all year round climbing Mt Kenya and trekking Mount Kenya expeditions designed to suite all budget travelers, families, independent travelers, small group adventures of all ages and size. There are several route options up Mt. Kenya. A team of guides, porters and cooks will make the ascent up Mount Kenya with you, allowing you to enjoy the experience free from the burden of carrying heavy gear, gathering water, finding your way up the mountain and making meals.