The comfortable, well-appointed, tastefully decorated Game lodges and Luxury Tented Camps in and around the game parks are a sight to behold, inside and out. You'll love the attention to locally-inspired design and the attentiveness and warm hospitality of the staff at these accommodations. The classic safari lodges in Kenya are a wonderful choice for families with smaller children or those with different levels of ability, as they are abundant in creature comforts and most are designed for accessibility. Some Kenya lodges and Safari Tented Camps also have swimming pools, which are fabulous for relaxation at the end of the day and great for children who need time to play in between the drives. Some of these lodges provide vibrant cultural performances and after hours social experiences, adding to the list of fun activities on your safari. As with everywhere you might stay on a safari , the dining experience will be top-notch, prepared by expert local chefs, and feature your favorite familiar foods, the local bounty, and some African dishes for you to try, if you so wish.
